

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.32511 of 2008
CHANDAR BELDAR
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR

2. 27.8.2008 Heard.

The case has been brought by the father of the lady who is alleged to be killed by the present petitioner and his family members. The lady Lalita Devi was married undisputedly to Ashok Beldar, son of the present petitioner and it is alleged that only one month after the marriage, she was driven out of the matrimonial house after being beaten up. She again went to her matrimonial house but she was sent back for not bringing motor-cycle as demanded. She was again taken to her matrimonial house where she was again beaten up and given poison mixed with her food and ultimately she died.

The Court's attention was drawn towards Annexure-2, which is the statement of the lady recorded under section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure in connection with Muffasil P.S. case no.157 of 2006, which case probably was registered for elopement of the lady with one Jitendra Kumar and the lady appears to have stated in some paragraphs that she went away with said Jitendra.

The contention is that the lady did not live in the house of the petitioner as she did not like to be married to the petitioner's son and as such she went away with said Jitendra and a false case was lodged.

Let petitioner named above, under the above facts and circumstances of the case, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/-(Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Gaya, in connection with Chandauti P.S. case no.77 of 2008.
